Space-themed quickstart history seeds. Pick one together, answer the questions to customize it, then setup your history and play to find out the details.

A

Battle of the Planets. Earth, Mars, Neptune and the moons of Jupiter wage war for the Solar System.

- ◆ Who started the war? Who wins? Does one planet conquer or do they settle their differences and live in peace?
- ◆ Realistic science or pulp rocketship romance?
- ◆ Are the other planets inhabited by human colonists or native alien races?

B

Humanity uplifted. Aliens accelerate the development of mankind.

- ◆ Why did the aliens do it? To prevent us from becoming a danger, to gain more useful servants or sheer altruism?
- ◆ What do the aliens look like? Have we even seen them? Are there other alien races or only this one?
- ◆ When in human history did the intervention start? Recently or back at the dawn of civilization (ancient astronauts steering the course of humanity)?
- ◆ Did humanity know the aliens were doing it? Did they ask our permission, do it secretly or force us?

C

Brave new world. Colonists settle an unexplored planet.

- ◆ What's the ecosystem like? Earth-like, verdant but exotic, sparse but sustainable, or barren? Can we breathe? Are there dangers from plants, animals, microbes or the weather?
- ◆ Did aliens live here first? Are they long-dead or still here?
- ◆ Why did the colonists come? Are they settlers or refugees? Are they in contact with other worlds or on their own?
- ◆ What happens to the colony? Does it grow and prosper, struggle but survive, tear itself apart or die out?
- ◆ What's the name of the world? Hope, Haven, Promise, Green, Winter, Justice, Crucible, or Pica IV.
